Primary Advantage is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff to share this commitment. We welcome applications from all sections of the community regardless of gender, race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or age.
Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in applying for the position of Teaching Schools Admin Assistant at Primary Advantage National Teaching Schools. I hope this pack supports you in finding out more about our Teaching Schools and the Primary Advantage Federation. The pack includes some background information about the federation, information about the application process and the job description.

Teaching schools are outstanding schools that work with others to provide high-quality training and development to new and experienced school staff. They are part of the government’s plan to give schools a central role in raising standards by developing a self-improving and sustainable school-led system. Primary Advantage is a federation of schools working together because we believe our schools can gain many benefits from working collaboratively.

The role demands excellent people skills and customer focused attention to detail together with excellent logistical competence, energy, enthusiasm and the willingness to go the extra mile to ensure the effective delivery of Teaching School priorities.

You will be responsible for managing the day to day operations of the Teaching School’s work comprising ITT and co-ordinating training/school improvement activities for all other Teaching School’s partnership schools. You will advise and support the Head of Teaching School on a range of Teaching School matters.

The closing date for this application is: Sunday 18th February 2018 at 9:30am

The interviews for shortlisted candidates will take place on: Thursday 22nd February 2018

More information about each school can be found on the schools’ websites. Please contact Venessa Williams on 0207 254 1010. Please send completed application forms to recruitment@primaryadvantage.hackney.sch.uk

Kind regards,

Lucy Blewett

Head of Teaching Schools
Primary Advantage National Teaching Schools

Teaching schools are outstanding schools that work with others to provide high-quality training and development to new and experienced staff. They are part of the government’s plan to give schools a central role in raising standards by developing a self-improving and sustainable school-led system.

St John and St James, Holy Trinity and Springfield are designated teaching schools, working in collaboration with the other five schools in the federation. The schools work in partnership with primary schools across the borough and beyond and play a key role within the Primary Advantage National Teaching Schools Alliance.

Our work on improving provision for children will continue to see us working in partnership with schools in Hackney, across London and beyond. We will be working closely with our strategic partners; The Institute of Education and Hackney Learning Trust, to effectively deliver Initial Teacher Training (School direct and PGCE), Continuous Professional Development, talent management, school to school support, the brokering of Specialist Leaders of Education and research and development. Primary Advantage Teaching School Alliance will see all schools within the alliance achieving more together.

Teaching Schools provide opportunities for teachers across the federation to grow through:
- excellent opportunities for professional development in a unique and dynamic context;
- opportunities for collaboration and shared experiences through our teacher learning networks and learning festivals;
- career progression opportunities through a range of leadership programmes and opportunities to be recognised as Specialist Leaders of Education and Lead Practitioners.

Our Commitments

Every teacher is a great teacher; every school is a great school. We aim to move incrementally towards excellence in all aspects of our work.

All pupils will make good or better progress and will be properly equipped for the next stage of their schooling.

Learning environments are of high quality where pupils feel safe and secure, known and valued and motivated to learn.

Curriculum provision is bespoke, broadens horizons and inspires our pupils to become successful learners, confident individuals and responsible citizens.

Our learning community provides opportunities for growth for pupils, staff and families.

We believe passionately in improving the life chances for all our pupils. We have the highest possible standards and will use our resources and expertise to unlock learning in all its facets for all our children. No barrier is too great; no learning is left behind. Skilled teachers use the most effective teaching methods to motivate learners and raise aspirations.

Our schools are special places to work. We want to attract and retain staff at all levels that are willing to think flexibly, work with rigour and precision, and go the extra mile.

We work in partnership, pooling our expertise and resources in order to achieve collectively what we may not be able to achieve individually.

We promote a collaborative approach whilst developing the capacity of each school to serve its own community and retain its distinct identity.

We have developed approaches which we know make the most significant impact on pupil outcomes. These are well considered systems, approaches or policies which can be implemented in a range of settings with the appropriate levels of support.

Our leadership structure aims to make the most of our shared resources, maintain high expectations and secure high standards.

We build leadership sustainability by spotting talent and creating opportunities for staff at all levels to receive high quality training and leadership experiences.

We recognise the importance of individuality, spontaneity and creativity in developing innovation.

We seek to maximise the efficiency and effectiveness of each school by capitalising on centralised services and sharing systems and procedures.

Through the work of our Teaching School we are able to offer excellent professional development for current practitioners, leaders and future recruits to the profession. Teachers have many opportunities for professional growth through our development and masters programmes.

Staff, pupils and families have opportunities for growth through links with our partners, schools and a wide range of enrichment activities.
